Coreopsis Limerock Series

In the border, or for spectacular containers and combinations, the colorful Limerock series of Coreopsis feature a compact, uniform, and heavy flowering nature that is unsurpassed for summer-long beauty and into early fall. All three have a neat, mounding habit with deep green, narrow foliage.

'Limerock Ruby' (USPP #15455) – A great long-blooming Coreopsis. Abundant 1-½" daisies are velvety ruby red with yellow centers. The original variety in the series.

'Limerock Passion' (USPP #15979) – A sport of 'Limerock Ruby' with the same graceful habit and eye-popping flower power. Deep green foliage and myriad pinkish-lavender daisies with yellow centers.

'Limerock Dream' (USPP #16923) – A lovely addition to the series, its flowers evolve from apricot pink in spring to coppery orange in midsummer. A sport of 'Limerock Passion' discovered by Green Leaf Plants grower Pam Schweizer.

Full sun. Treat as tender perennials; hardiness variable. In the garden, 16" tall with a 30" to 36" spread. Blooms of Bressingham® introductions.
